New TA Orientation
August 2013

Tuesday, August 20 - Thursday, August 22
8:30 am to 12:30 pm

What is it?
An opportunity for new graduate teaching assistants to begin learning about best practices in college teaching, become familiar with FIU and federal policies about college students, and find out about important resources available to TAs.

Who should attend?
- TAs who will begin working with students in Fall 2013.
- TAs who have already begun working with students but have not yet attended TA Orientation.
- TAs who are participating in or interested in joining the TA Certification Program.
  (For details, select “services” in our website: http://cat.fiu.edu)

When & where?
TA Orientation is a 3-day event, and TAs must attend all 3 sessions to complete this mandatory requirement. It will be held August 20-22 (Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday), from 8:30 am to 12:30 pm in GL 100.

How can you register?
Go to http://fiutaorientation2013.eventbrite.com and use the password "teach."

If you have any trouble registering, or have questions about TA Orientation or the TA Certification program, please contact Dr. Isis Artze-Vega, Assistant Director of the Center for the Advancement of Teaching (CAT), at iartze@fiu.edu.

We look forward to working with you!
