

Presidential Fellowship Guidelines – Fall 2023

The purpose of the Presidential Fellowship is to attract top-quality graduate students into doctoral degree programs at Florida International University. Students are awarded these Fellowships based on their potential to become outstanding scholars and future leaders in their disciplines.

Presidential Fellows receive a stipend of $34,155 per year for four years. The University Graduate School (UGS) will provide the stipend for two of the four years and the unit is expected to provide the stipend for the remaining two years. In addition, the UGS will provide a tuition fee waiver for 24 credits per year and health insurance for 2 years of the fellowship.

During the two years of support from UGS, there are no teaching obligations on the part of the recipient. During the third and fourth year of support from the unit, the student is expected to have responsibilities consistent with the nature of the support, which may be either teaching or research assistantship.

EVALUATION CRITERIA:

- Outstanding GPA
- Other evidence of likelihood of outstanding future performance as a scholar
- Excellent match between the student's research interest and availability of faculty in the department with relevant research
- GRE scores will be waived for Fall 2023 Presidential Nominations.

MINIMUM ELIGIBILITY:

- Undergraduate or graduate GPA is greater than or equal to 3.5.
- Student is not currently enrolled in a doctoral program at FIU.

EXPECTATIONS:

Presidential Fellows' time to receipt of degree will be at least one term less than the unit's average.

Presidential Awardees will have submitted at least one first-authored manuscript to a national peer-reviewed journal prior to graduation.

CONDITIONS FOR ANNUAL CONTINUATION OF FELLOWSHIP:

Presidential Award recipients will be subject to an annual review of academic and scholarly progress. The unit must forward the annual review to the University Graduate School prior to renewal of the award. The recipient must enroll full time (9 credits in fall, 9 credits in spring, and 6 credits in summer prior to candidacy) in the graduate program.

NOMINATION PROCEDURE:

This is a department-nominated award (students cannot apply directly). Each doctoral degree-granting program may submit unlimited nominations.

The unit must commit to the GA appointment equivalent to .50 FTE for two years at $34,155. Additional commitments made in the form of travel funds and/or research supplies will be viewed favorably by the evaluation committee.

Nomination form (attached) needs to be submitted with supporting documentation by no later than Sunday, January 15, 2023.

- To submit completed electronic nominations, UGS will provide a unique link to each Academic Program to upload nominations in the UGS One Drive.
- Please e-mail ugsfellows@fiu.edu to request your link, do not e-mail your nominations.
- Nominations should be uploaded as separate files (one nomination per nominee).
- Hard copy submissions will not be accepted.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION:

1. A cover letter from the Graduate Program Director providing the following:
 - a. Justification for giving an award to this nominee.
 - b. Availability of faculty in the department to mentor student based on their research interest.
 - c. List of publications for each Presidential recipient for the past 5 years (include pdf file of the page where fellowship was acknowledged only).

2. Statement from the student describing any prior research and plans for future research (It can be same personal statement used in the PhD application).
3. Up to three letters of recommendation (They can be same letters used in the PhD application). If soliciting letters specifically for this application, please ask references to indicate if the student is in the top 1%, 5% or 10% of all students recommended for graduate school. If the letter of recommendation comes via e-mail, please print out the e-mail message with the header showing the attached file.
4. Presidential fellowship nominee's resume/CV
