

Doctoral Evidence Acquisition (DEA) Fellowship Guidelines – Fall 2023

The Doctoral Evidence Acquisition (DEA) Fellowship is specifically intended to support doctoral students for whom their current means of financial support would significantly interfere with or preclude their ability to collect the evidence needed for their doctoral research. A DEA Fellow is awarded a stipend to enable evidence acquisition that otherwise would not be possible. Evidence acquisition activities that might be supported by the DEA Fellowship include, but are not limited to: off-campus library/archive research, fieldwork, experiments, interviews, collection of specimens, etc.

While we will strive for university-wide representation in the selected fellowships, priority will be given to programs that are able to impact performance metrics in this fiscal year or next, in strategic areas as defined by the Board of Governors. Prior performance in meeting graduation expectations will also be considered.

The University Graduate School (UGS) will only consider funding a student for time needed for the acquisition of evidence e.g., data collection, sample collection, interviewing, etc. We understand that a student may also need financial support during the data analysis and writing phase of their doctoral work, and the UGS provides an alternative support mechanism for these activities, i.e., the Dissertation Year Fellowship.

The UGS will make DEA Fellowship awards available three times per year. The present application is for funding that begins in Fall 2023. The DEA Fellowship provides a stipend of $9,449.55 for one term. After a student has advanced to candidacy, he/she is considered full-time if enrolled for a minimum of three dissertation credit hours per term (this applies to both domestic and international students). Therefore, fellowship recipients must enroll in three dissertation credit hours per term. UGS will provide a tuition waiver for three dissertation credits only. Any additional credits beyond the three that are required will be the financial responsibility of the student.

Publications resulting from research supported in part through this fellowship should acknowledge the financial support of a Florida International University Doctoral Evidence Acquisition Fellowship. A copy of any such publication should be sent to the UGS.

IMPORTANT TO CONSIDER

- Deferment of the DEA Fellowship is NOT allowed. Exceptions will only be considered for students with extenuating circumstances or those traveling internationally who do not have their travel approved by the FIU Travel Committee.
- The DEA Fellowship may not be used to travel to countries designated as State Sponsors of Terrorism by the federal government.
- Students may not hold any other employment or undertake other types of training during the period they are receiving their fellowship.
- The DEA Fellowship is processed through Financial Aid. The stipend, which is considered a “scholarship”, is disbursed as a lump sum at the beginning of the semester. Please note that in order not to exceed the cost of attendance, the DEA Fellowship may impact your ability to receive other types of financial aid such as student loans. Please contact Financial Aid at 305-348-7272 if you have any questions.
- UGS Fellowships can be awarded consecutively but not simultaneously.
- The Selection Committee is comprised of Associate Deans from each college. UGS does not take part in the selection process.
